LIONS TOLD OF HIGH SIERRA

Convention On Thursday; Bob Woodward Competes For District Honors

Placerville Lions bade goodspeed to their convention delegates Tuesday noon and heard a talk on the High Sierra by Thomas H. Jukes, of the branch College of Agriculture at Davis.

The Lions convention formally opens Thursday morning at San Jose and the club is especially interested in the opening meeting for that will be the occasion when Robert Woodward, sponsored in the Lions public speaking contest, will compete for district honors.

Young Mr. Woodward is all ready champion of Northern California and Nevada and at San Jose will be competing against two speakers from the southern section of the state.

Delegates to the San Jose convention from the Placerville Den are Lion President A. H. Murray, and Lions Louis Armes, M. E. Hensley, John H. Palmer, Loren Atwood and Ben Larson.

Mr. Jukes' talk included the showing of several kodachrome slides of scenic views in the High Sierra and the new Kings Canyon National Park. A member of the Mother Lode Chapter of the Sierra Club, Mr. Jukes was brought to the Lions club through the courtesy of Dr. Hynton I. Sharman, local contact man for the Mother Lode Chapter of the Sierra Club.

Business of the meeting, which saw Lion President A. H. Murray launch his official year, included an appropriation of $10 to the club's music department for song books, and the approval of a motion that the club recommends to the directors an appropriation of $10 to assist the Spanish War Veterans in their work of repairing and improving the veterans' plot at Union Cemetery.

Church Dinner On Thursday

Reservations To Close This Evening For 75th Birthday Supper

Committees of the Church of Our Saviour are nearing the conclusion of preparations for an observance of the seventy-fifth anniversary of laying the cornerstone of the church, which opens on Thursday evening with a dinner.

The dinner is open to the public and will be served at the guild hall of the church at fifty cents per plate. The committee has requested, however, that those who plan to attend should reserve places so that they will know how many to prepare for. Reservations may be placed with Mrs. S. Ronzone or with the Rev. Rex A. Barron.

The diamond anniversary observance continues Sunday morning with special services at the morning worship hour, to which the public is welcome, and for which invitations to attend have been sent by the church to the various civic, fraternal and social orders of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Baker have moved their Sierra Photo Studio business from the location on Center Street to 368 Main Street, in the building formerly occupied by the Placerville Cleaners and Tailors.

"We are gradually getting straightened around in our new home," Mr. Baker said, and will be able to give an improved service in any type of photography."

Carol Land is helping Mr. Baker with the arrangement of the new studio.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker have disposed of their business interests in Sacramento and will devote their time now to the production of fine photography in their Placerville location.

Gets New Post

Admiral Sir Edward Evans, British naval hero in the World War, has been appointed by Aircraft Production Minister Lord Beaverbrook to take charge of the "local protection and security" of England's aircraft factories and air bases, a vital post should Germany invade Britain.

PIONEER KIN PAYS VISIT

Mrs. Lilly Swan St. Clair Was Niece Of Geo. Sayles; Father Kept Toll-House

Re-visiting again, scenes where her father and other relatives lived in the pioneer times, Mrs. Lilly G. Swan St. Clair and her husband, M. A. St. Clair, are here this week from their home at Walnut, in Los Angeles County, stopping at the White Spot.

Mrs. Swan is a daughter of William Swan, who kept Swan's Toll House on the old Pioneer Trail and emigrant road, and was a niece of George Sayles whose name is preserved in what is today known as Sayles Flat. The old toll house, she learned from the late Fred Irwin during a visit here ten years ago, stood on what is today known as Tamarack Flat.

According to Mrs. St. Clair, her uncle, George Swan, was a forty-niner in El Dorado County and was interested in mining when he came here.

Meeting with some success, he sent a year later for his brother, William. Mrs. St. Clair's father, who established a toll house about forty-six miles east of Placerville and built a road up old Slippery Ford which, since the highway re-alignment about ten years ago, is off the main highway.

The toll section operated and maintained by her father spanned a total distance of twenty miles, Mrs. St. Clair said, and although travel fell off during the late fifties as the "gold fever" waned, there were prosperous days again during the Comstock development.

Mr. and Mrs. St. Clair reported they were "in a hurry" when they were here ten years ago, but this time they expect to visit the old scenes more leisurely, and to renew their acquaintance with Mary O'Donnell, whom they met on their previous visit.

As a part of their visit here, they called Tuesday morning at the museum of the County Historical Society and inspected with some interest the pictures and relics on display there.

RED CROSS PRODUCTION SCHEDULE SHIFTED TEMPORARILY

Owing to the circumstance that the 75th anniversary dinner of the Church of Our Saviour will be held Thursday evening in the guild hall at the church, the schedule for the meeting of the Red Cross production department has been changed for this week only.

Instead of meeting Thursday, as is the usual custom, the section met on Tuesday and made plans to meet again on Wednesday.

According to Mrs. Edith Rantz, production chairman, it is especially desirable that there be a strong attendance as the layettes on which the ladies are working are supposed to be completed by July 1st.

3 SUPERVISORS TO BE NAMED

Contests Apparent For Seats In Second And Third County Districts

El Dorado County will elect Supervisors in the First, Second and Third Supervisorial districts this year and all incumbents are listed as candidates.

Supervisor P. J. Hall has filed his candidacy for re-election in the First District and Supervisor Cyril Heuser has filed for re-election in the Third District.

In the Second District, Supervisor Rolland Gust, who was appointed several months ago to succeed the late Supervisor Charles Green, is a candidate for election.

Tuesday morning it appeared that Supervisor Gust and Supervisor Heuser may have opposition.

Although none except the nominating petitions of the incumbents were then on file, it was learned that a petition is being circulated in the Second District nominating C. R. Tinker as a candidate, and in the Third District, nominating W. S. Biggs as a candidate. Mr. Biggs served several years ago as a member of the board.

I. E. U. Chapter At China Flat

Membership Applies For Charter; Second Unit Of Union In County

Employees of the Sacramento Box Company at China Flat have formed a proposed collective bargaining agency numbering about 95 members and have applied to the Industrial Employees Union for a charter as a branch of that organization.

Granting of the charter will create the second unit of the Industrial Employees Union in the county. The employees of the Michigan-California Lumber Company have been members of that union for about three years past.

The Sacramento Box Company workers have elected E. B. Wilmoth as chairman; Charles DeVine, vice-chairman; Floyd Coker, secretary-treasurer; and Tom Christanson, Frank Carr, E. Poalite and Wilbur Jones, members of the conference committee.

The agreement with the company management provides for full seniority rights and all other provisions currently considered as in keeping with progressive agreements between capital and labor. This, of course, includes the clause providing for the arbitration of differences, which has been common to all contracts signed by the I. E. U. since its organization as a collective bargaining agency.

The enrollment of members in the new organization is continuing.

MRS. NORA GRAY CANDIDATE FOR ADVANCEMENT IN GRAND PARLOR

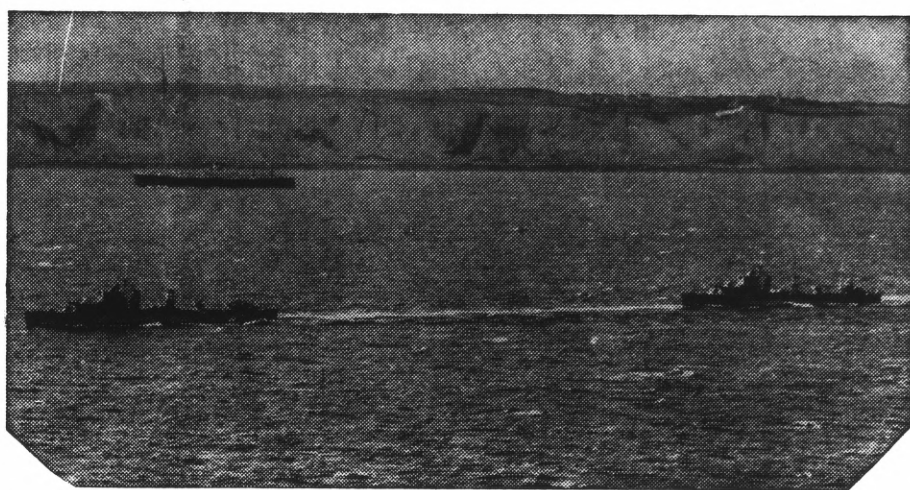

The annual Grand Parlor of Native Daughters of the Golden West is in session this week at Oakland with Gertrude Steffens, Pearl Tinney, Cora Miller and Margaret Wilson representing Marguerite Parlor No. 12, of Placerville.

Mrs. Nora Gray, a member of Marguerite Parlor, who has been Grand Outside Sentinel during the past year, is in attendance and is being supported for election as Grand Inside Sentinel for the coming year.

Scouts Meet Thursday On Camping Plans

Members of Troop 57, Boy Scouts, will meet Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Federated Church on plans for their participation in the forthcoming Boy Scout camp. The troop committee met Monday night on the completion of preliminary arrangements.

Dover, Within Range of Nazi Artillery

Two British destroyers, the Fortune and Firedrake, are pictured conveying a freighter (background) beneath the chalk cliffs of Dover, England. Twenty miles across the Channel, in Boulogne, the Nazis are now within heavy gun range of these cliffs. England, which hasn't been invaded by an enemy army since 1066, is very close to it now.

BARTLETT CROP 20 PCT. LESS

County Production For Shipment, Canning To Be Larger This Year

The California Bartlett pear crop available for fresh shipment and canning is estimated to be nearly 20 per cent less than last year. This estimate was made at a joint meeting of the Bartlett Pear Commodity Committee of the California Tree Fruit Agreement, the Advisory Board for the control of intra-state fresh shipments, and the program committee of the canning Bartlett pear prorate, held at Sacramento this week.

The total crop was estimated at 134,800 tons as against 162,274 tons last year and the El Dorado County crop is estimated as 14,500 tons as against 13,186 tons last season. The 1939 figure and the 1940 estimate include only tonnage shipped east, tonnage shipped to local markets and tonnage canned. They do not include Bartlett pears dried, unharvested or used otherwise.

W. P. Darsie of Walnut Grove acted as chairman of the meeting which was attended by grower representatives from every pear growing district in the state as well as a good many of the larger pear shippers.

Reports were received from the Pacific Northwest indicating that the Bartlett pear crop in that territory would be slightly less than the 1939 crop and considerably less than the 1938 crop.

At the meeting it was announced that these estimates do not include Bartlett for drying of by-products other than canning.

During the 1939 season, 65,722 tons were reported shipped east by the California Tree Fruit Agreement; approximately 11,000 tons were reported shipped to San Francisco and Los Angeles markets for fresh consumption by the Bartlett Pear Advisory Board; 85,600 tons were reported canned by the Canning Bartlett Pear Prorate.

The first shipments of Bartlett pears are expected from the Sacramento River district and Marysville about the last of June.

Street Crossing, New Center Line Painted

City workmen under the supervision of the police department this week are re-painting pedestrian crossings on principal downtown thoroughfares, and will paint a center line through Main Street.

It is expected that the re-painted cross-walks will insure due regard for pedestrian right of way, and that the center line on Main Street will be duly regarded.

Chief of Police and Mrs. Ralph Jones and Mrs. Howard Jones received a cablegram Monday reporting Howard's arrival in the Panama Canal Zone, where he will be employed. Mrs. Jones expects to join her husband within the next few months.

C. OF C. LAUDS DIVIDE ROAD

Supervisor Breedlove Commended For Route To Wentworth Springs

A report by the Chamber of Commerce Highway Committee, John A. Raffetto, Jr., chairman, at the chamber's meeting Monday night especially commended Supervisor William Breedlove, of Georgetown district, for the excellent condition of the road leading east from Georgetown to Wentworth Springs and beyond.

In presenting the report, Mr. Raffetto said the matter had been noted by members of the Rod and Gun Club enroute to Wentworth Springs the past weekend and it was the vote of the Chamber of Commerce that a letter of commendation for the work should be addressed to Mr. Breedlove.

A variety of others matters came before the chamber, which held its June meeting at the Ivy Hotel Monday evening, and which voted to dispense with the regularly scheduled meeting for July.

John Winkelman, of the conservation committee, reported trout rearing ponds are ready for use except for the installation of screens at Kyburz, Eagle Rock and Pyramid. He said 15,000 trout will be planted in each pond Wednesday of this week.

The highway committee report mentioned an expression of appreciation for the chamber's interest in highway safety from Captain E. A. Brewster, of the highway patrol. The specific instance which called forth the expression was the chamber's support of a move to have a cross-walk established across the highway between the county campground and the beach, at Lake Tahoe.

Mr. Raffetto reported oiling of the new grade between Pierce's Camp and across the summit eastward will begin Wednesday. Newly improved sections of Route 49 between Pilot Hill and Auburn have been oiled, he said.

Mac's Jumbo Fountain was voted as a new member.

Bottled Note Travels 1,000 Miles

GREENWICH, Conn., (UP) — In a spirit of adventure, the two little children of Robert V. Titus put a note in a bottle and threw the container into Long Island Sound.

They asked the finder to communicate with them. Then, four months later they received an acknowledgment—from Fort Lauderdale, Florida, 1,000 miles away, where Loomis Griscom found the bottle washed ashore.

There were two fire alarms Saturday, one to a garage on Union Street west of Bedford Avenue, the other to a grass fire in Circle City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Strickland, of Placerville, are the parents of a son, born Saturday at a Sacramento hospital.

PROPOSAL NOW UNDER STUDY

Plan Would Embrace All Men And Women Of All Classes, Conference Told

WASHINGTON, (UP) — President Roosevelt predicted today that some form of universal government service on a compulsory basis will be proposed as applicable to all men and women of all classes.

He said the plan is now being studied and added he may send it to congress in the form of a letter or message in from three to six weeks.

The President discussed the plan at his press conference today and said the service would be military only in the broadest terms and probably would represent one year of compulsory training for all young Americans—women and men.

The training, it was indicated would include:

1. For combat service;
2. For non-combat duty in uniform behind the fighting lines such as maintaining communications;
3. Non-uniform technical training for work in industrial production essential to the support of a fighting Army;
4. Conservation units to be trained in the conservation of essential natural resources in time of war.

Economic Bloc Being Formed

Federation Of American Nations Mapped As Move Against Europe Influences

WASHINGTON, (UP)—An economic federation of American nations is planned by administration officials as a defense against post-war penetration of this hemisphere from Europe.

The instrument for carrying these plans into effect will be the American Society of Agricultural Sciences organized last month at a meeting here of the American Scientific Congress.

The United States has taken the lead in forming the society into an active and effective organization, and the 11 other South and Central American nations.

Harvey Jameson Named On Farm Debt Committee

SACRAMENTO (UP)—Gov. Culbert Olson has named the first of approximately 300 appointments to the Farm Debt Adjustment Commission, to serve at the pleasure of the governor without pay.

The members include: Amador county, Harvey Jameson, Plymouth; Clarence Scully, Ione; Calaveras county, Charles P. Snyder, San Andreas; C. J. Tiscornia, San Andreas; J. F. Tower, Milton; State Senator Jesse M. Mayo, Angels Camp.

COMEDY IN THE AIR AND ON THE FARM HOLDS SWAY AT EMPIRE

Tuesday's show, for the one day only, at the Empire, features comedy as dished out by Laurel and Hardy and Martha Raye and Chirle Ruggles.

Laurel and Hardy are in the air and cut up their antics under the heading of "The Flying Deuces," with most of the hair-raising engineering by Pilot Frank Clark.

Martha Raye and Charlie Ruggles are on the farm in "The Farmer's Daughter." The picture gets its rustic background from the use of the summer barn-theater production with Ruggles as the producer and Martha Raye in the title role.

Stewart Says—Republicans Won't Even Consider Plan To "Draft" Roosevelt

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

THE SUGGESTION, which already has appeared in print, that the Republicans ought to join the Democrats in a draft Roosevelt movement, has evoked few, if any, cheers from G. O. P. sources.

From the minute that the president delivered his defense message to congress, Republican sentiment was practically unanimous that he must have what he asked for—that there mustn't be a bit of partisan opposition to his preparedness thesis. There was no such Republican response, however, to the contention that partisanship should be forgotten as to the next White House tenancy.

The proposal was put forward by a columnist or two, of considerable popularity.

It was to the purport that the emergency calls for "F. D.'s" presidential endorsement at the coming G. O. P. convention, but with the nomination of a Republican for the vice presidency. Authors of this plan were of the opinion that the ensuing Democratic convention could be counted on to re-name Roosevelt for first place on its ticket and to acquiesce in the Republicans' vice presidential selection.

Then, "F. D." and his Republican partner having been unanimously elected, the reasoning was that the Republicans undoubtedly would be given a fair proportion of representation in the cabinet, and we'd have a coalition government.

Coalition Clammy Received
Whether or not this program might suit the Democrats there's no knowing, but there are no noticeable indications that it appeals appreciably to the Republicans.

Contrariwise their high command is trying to figure out how their campaign spokesmen can reconcile their party's acquiescence in the Rooseveltian preparedness policy with opposition to him for re-election.

They begin to believe that they've hit on an argument. Both sides' slogans are sure to be, "Let's keep out of war!" They'll concur that, if we do keep out, it will be because we've made ourselves too formidable to be tackled. So a supplementary slogan will be, "Let's make ourselves overwhelmingly strong!"

These slogans are all right. But, from the Republican standpoint, the trouble is that the Democrats will have the same pair.

"Let's prepare!" will be the Democratic battlecry. The Republicans' will be, "We say so, too!"

There isn't much inspiration in this latter yell.

Why Are We so Weak?
Former Assistant War Secretary F. Trubee Davison, now chairman of the United Republican finance committee, has evolved this proposition:

"For going on eight years we've had a national New Deal administration engaged in spending billions on boom-dogging. Why wasn't it spending all that money for national defense? It would have wiped out unemployment and today we'd be loaded for bear."

The administration's contemplated answer is that times have so changed that we don't know what's what. That is to say, seven years ago the navy was the main thing; aviation was a mere adjunct.

Now it looks as if it's the other way.

"How," asks the administration, "were we to know that the balance would be so changed?"

Well, apparently the Germans foresaw it. The Allies didn't. That was their funeral. But neither did we. That's what the Republicans intend to blame the administration for.

So there's no prospect of a coalition.

The Republican version is going to be that the New Deal bungled its job.

The story will be that "F. D.'s" o. k. at present—but frightfully belated—and even now on the right track only with Republican help.

C. G. Price reported on a preliminary study of the opportunities for an adult education program in the county and further study and subsequent report on the matter was promised. L. A. Raffetto reported on the preliminary draft of the budget for the new year and Secretary Ripley reported on the entertainment of the Sacramento Trade Club, the Sacramento mining committee and on his visit with Howard Lewis, chairman of the chamber's recreation committee, with the Sacramento Chamber of Commerce directors.

The meeting approved a $10.66 outlay to square up the accounts of the May Day picnic and heard from George Williamson a proposal that his museum be taken over by some group which could insure continuing maintenance and which could, perhaps, move the collection to some point where it would be available for inspection by a large number of visitors. This was referred to the city and county committee for further study.

The advisability of having a "county insignia" which delegates from the county to various conventions might wear, was discussed.

Grilled Chops For Porch Meal

By BETSY NEWMAN

PORCH MEALS are a thing to think of when the weather is warm and pleasant. Try a lamb grill, which is easily and quickly prepared. Serve on your grill plates (come with partitions, you know, if you have 'em) hot off the grill.

Today's Menu
Loin Lamb Chop Grill
New Potatoes
Tossed Green Salad—Hot Muffins
Fresh Strawberries—Coffee

Loin Lamb Chop Grill
4 lamb chops 4 bananas
8 link sausages 4 pineapple
2 cups cooked spears
peas 4 bacon slices

Have loin chops cut from 3/4 to 1 inch thick. Thoroughly preheat broiler, put peas in bottom of broiler pan, and chops on rack and broil. When chops are brown on one side, turn and add to grill link sausages and bananas that have been split in half lengthwise, a pineapple spear inserted in each and a slice of bacon wrapped over outside. Turn sausages and banana rolls once so that they will be evenly cooked.

By the time the chops are browned on the second side the bacon should be cooked, the sausages done (be sure of this latter, as pork should always be thoroughly cooked), and peas heated through. It will take 10 to 12 minutes. Cook potatoes in boiling salted water, drain, dip in melted butter and put on grill for browning.

Quick Muffins
2 cups flour 2 tps. baking
2 tbs. butter powder
3 eggs milk

Sift flour with baking powder and 1 or 2 tablespoons sugar if you like them sweet, rub or cut butter through mixture thoroughly, then add milk, a little at a time, until you have a batter a little thicker than for pancakes. Beat in beaten eggs the last thing and bake in hot muffin rings or tins.

INTENSIVE RECRUITING INSTITUTED IN S. F. DISTRICT

SAN FRANCISCO—To expedite compliance with Ninth Corps Area recruiting plan for the rapid procurement of enlistments under the President's expansion of the army program, intensive recruiting throughout the San Francisco Recruiting District was initiated today according to Colonel G. T. Perkins, district recruiting officer for northern California.

Splendid opportunities for educational and vocational advancement are offered through service in the new specialized organizations composing our present streamlined army, Colonel Perkins said.

The San Francisco Recruiting District is accepting for enlistment in the signal battalion, Fort Lewis, Washington. Men accepted for this assignment should have a high school education or its equivalent. Motor mechanics will find many opportunities for their talents in the Quartermaster Corps at Moffett, Hamilton, McChord and March Air Fields. Office clerks are also needed at Moffett, McChord and Hamilton Fields.

Many grades and ratings are available by the new increases in the modern streamlined army said Colonel Perkins, and he urged young men interested in advancement to call at or write to the nearest army recruiting office without delay.

Negotiations are now in progress with nine other American Nations not represented at the conference and their participation is regarded as virtually certain. The only governments not included are Canada, British and French Guianas in South America.

"Charter members" of the new federation are: the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Ecuador, Peru, Santa Domingo, Uruguay, and Venezuela. Others who have been invited to participate are Bolivia, El Salvador, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Mexico, Nicaragua, Panama and Paraguay.

The purpose of the federation will be to promote the economic self-sufficiency of the Americas and to promote trade between the 21 republics of this hemisphere.

PICNIC DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN

and good food is a big part of the fun

Dorothy Greig

Hot casserole for picnic can be kept hot if wrapped in layers of thick paper

HAPPILY the limp sandwich, warmish lemonade era in picnic is no more. Nowadays a picnic meal is as appetizing as any we eat at home.

Instead of carrying along sandwiches, we carry along the makins, and whip our sandwiches together when and how we want them. Hot food is no novelty either. Steaks and chops taste wonderful, broiled over an outdoor grill. A hot casserole can be carried along, bundled thickly to keep it hot, or else in the portable cooker in which it baked. Thermos bottles insure steaming hot soup or coffee.

We can even have salads, appetizingly packed in individual paper cups and chilled in the refrigerator before leaving home.

But to get back to hot food—there's the outstanding improvement in picnic meals! A stimulating hot soup or a hot dish saves the day for any picnic meal. Even men (traditionally despisers of picnic food) beam over the outdoor meal that includes hot food.

In our family, this bean and frankfurter casserole almost always goes along when we head the call of the wide open spaces:

Casserole of Beans with Frankfurters
2 cans (16 oz.) pork and beans
1 pound frankfurters
Butter a heavy casserole and in it empty 1 can (16 oz.) pork and beans. Cut the frankfurters in half lengthwise. Arrange 1/2 pound of frankfurters on the beans; then add the second can of pork and beans and arrange the remaining frankfurters on top. Brush the split side of the frankfurters with melted butter. Cover and bake in a moderate (350°) oven for one hour. Serve 5-6.

To carry on a picnic: Leave cover on casserole and wrap the casserole in several thicknesses of heavy paper.
Ham and Vegetable Picnic Salad
2 cups diced celery
2 cups diced ham
1 can condensed vegetable soup
6 tablespoons salad or mayonnaise dressing
Combine the diced celery, diced ham, vegetable soup and mayonnaise. Mix and chill thoroughly. Pack into paper cups and garnish with strips of pimiento or slices of hard-cooked eggs. Serves 5.

kept moving in any direction until he dropped from exhaustion and lack of water. Brownell had been missing since June 3 but the search for him did not start until last week. After several days of searching infrequently used roads, his automobile was located Saturday.

Previously the posse had located Brownell's stalled automobile on a seldom used road across the desert. They began following his tracks and reported that he had gone in circles, coming back to the car and then resuming his attempts to reach help.

As they neared the body, the searchers reported, it was apparent to the trackers with the posse that the youth had been delirious and
